

The Homeless Point In Time application will be used to count homeless veterans. It will collect demographic information, collect responses to interview questions and send them to a repository.