

User Overview

The Provider View feature allows the users to view and customize their own provider-centric workspace. This workspace still functions similar to the patient-centric workspaces.

¹ The user may also choose to continue through the header bar instead of entering into the Provider View.

² This sub-process is covered in another workflow.